

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: 207-729-4439

Brunswick Downtown Association (BDA) Announces its Winners in the 2010 Brunswick Outdoor Arts Festival

The Brunswick Downtown Association (BDA) hosted its 4th Annual Brunswick Outdoor Arts Festival on Saturday, August 21st up and down n Maine Street in Brunswick.

The Festival featured over 70 artists' works in a juried fine art and craft exhibit representing a variety of mediums. The festival included booths of art work by Brunswick High School students and art students at Merrymeeting Adult Education, as well as artisan demonstrations, numerous musical acts, children's activities sponsored by the Five Rivers Arts Alliance, and a mime and jugglers, who performed throughout the day, adding to the festive atmosphere on Maine Street for the entire family.

The festival was designed to celebrate and continue to foster an appreciation of the arts in downtown Brunswick that truly makes Brunswick a cultural destination.

Judges awarded more than $1,100 in cash prizes for Best in Show and BDA (People's) Choice, as well as ribbons for first place in various artistic categories. Winners from Saturday's Brunswick Outdoor Arts Festival included:

Best in Show- Spindleworks

BDA (People's) Choice - Joseph Cousins

First Place Winners included:

Mary Alice Treworgy

Marji Greenhut

Jeff Audet

Herman Meisner

Catherine Worthington

Non-monetary Award winners in the Brunswick High School booth:

First Place: Dory Whynot

Second Place: Lindsey Ellis

Third Place: Gaeton Davis

Non-monetary Award winners in the Merrymeeting Adult Education booth:

First Place: Marta Shepherd

Second Place: Peggy Mason

Third Place: Ann Nelson

Photograph: Liz McGhee accepts a $500 Check as winner of Best in Show on behalf of Spindleworks from Dave Nadeau, who, along with Keith Garovoy serves as the Brunswick Downtown Association;'s Events Co-Chair. The Brunswick Outdoor Arts Festival is one of several special events sponsored by the Brunswick Downtown Association each year.